

FRIENDSHIP ENVOY

AMEI President & CEO Simin Curtis (center) was an invited guest of the 29th Annual Fajr Music Festival in Iran. The February 2013 trip included meetings with high-level officials of Iranian cultural organizations and the conductor of the Tehran Symphony. The trip was aimed at exploring the possibility of a Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concert in Tehran to commemorate the 50th Anniversary of their last performance there in 1964.
